

Dieselec Generators Expand into London

London Depot is open for business.....

To facilitate Dieselec's ambitious growth plans, and to increase our focus on projects within central London, we have now opened our new London Office.

For many years, we have traded in all 4 corners of the British Isles, without fully investing in the London market and the commitment it requires.

With our new Dieselec London team, made up of FG Wilson Generator experts, we are now equipped to provide unrivalled customer service and value for money for new and existing customers in London and the South East.
